They Will be Able to Best the First Series Champions, The Brownies. The Scheduled Games of the Week. Biercle Road Records Made Official-The L. A. W. Classification Bule a Success-Other News of Sport.

The past week was an idle one with the bowlers of both the local leagues. In the Wheeling League the first series has ended with The Brownies as champions, and the players are getting ready for the second series. Over on the South Side there is but one series which will end at about the same time as the second in the up-town league.

The Bowlers and Wheeling are scheduled to play at Wheeling park this evening but the former's captain is endeavoring to effect a postponement, so that the umpire will probably first call, "play ball" at the park on the following representation of the second time this season. The pencil pushers will on-deavor to make a good beginning at the start of the New Year, and the La Belles who are out for the second series championship for all they are worth will endeavor to duplicate the elegant cost of whitewash they administered will endeavor to duplicate the elegant coat of whitewash they administered Pen and Pencil at the start of the first series. On Wednesday Provident and Columbia will meet on Seibert alleys, on Thursday Lotus and Nameless will contest at the same place and on Friday The Brownies and Calumet will play at the Musee.

There is much speculation as to whether The Brownies will be able to repeat their performance of the first season in carrying off the pennant of the second series. Several clubs will be in the fight with the champions. In fact LaBelle, Wheeling, The Bowlers, Columbia and Nameless or perhaps even some of the second division clubs may beat out the first series champions.

Over on the South Side the week's games are as follows: Thursday, Knoke vs. Phoenix, at Mozart Park: Friday, Mozart vs. Harvest, at Mozart Park: Through a mistake the flustler and Excelsior teams are scheduled to play on next Sunday and the captain of one of the teams refuses to agree to a change of date. The case is a peculiar one and what the outcome will be no one knows at present.

Manager L. H. Haller, of the Lotus team, has notified the secretary of the Wheeling league that his team has changed its home alleys to Seibert's Garden for the second series. They played at the Musee last series.

CHAIRMAN RAYMOND'S REPORT. He Has Some Good Things to Say About the Classification Plan.

Howard E. Raymond, chairman of the L. A. W. racing board, says that at the meeting of the national assembly of the league, which will be held in New York city in February, his board expects to make a very encouraging report to the L. A. W. upon the class B

The prediction that were made that the league would find itself compelled to abandon the classification system for some better government of the racing men, Raymond asserts, has not been realized during his administration, and his entire board concur with him in the belief that the L. A. W. has solved the matter. That the classification his entire board concur with him in the belief that the L. A. W. has solved the matter. That the classification rules can be improved upon the racing board admit, and they find after twelve months' experience with the system that some of the rules require alteration, which they will suggest at the association meeting.

During the past season the class of racing has been improved upon. The racing men traveled in their true guise, and the racing board found little difficulty in weeding out violators of the new rules and placing the men in a new class, where they could race under the jurisdiction of the L. A. W.

Under the new classification system, more tournaments were held than in any previous year. The L. A. W. now realizes that pure annaturism will not flourish in cycling, and in their reluctance to assume jurisdiction over professional class in the L. A. W. has been the remedy for all previous differences.

Union Trust Company to be held for the heirs.

The great bulk of the estate is left to his three children in trust. The trustees are L. C. Bresse, J. S. Angus, T. D. Crothers and W. S. Goodfellow, all without bonds. The children are to have an income from the estate during their lives. In the event of the death of the daughters, their share is to go to their children; should Charles Fair die his share is to be equally divided among his sisters.

his share is to be equally divided among his sisters.

Among the large bequests are the following: $250,000 to Marie Anderson, a sister living at Ida Grove, Id., and a like amount to her husband, James Anderson, and children; $250,000 also to another sister, Margaret J. Crothers, who resides at San José, Cal., with her family; $50,000 each to his son-in-law. Herman Calcipha of New York and the man Oelrichs, of New York, and the dead millionaire's brother, William Fair, of Ida Grove, and $20,000 to an-other brother, Edward Fair, of Ida Bequests to charities are as follows: $50,000 to be divided among the Catholic orphan asylums; $50,000 among the Protestant asylums, and $25,000 among the Hebrew asylums of this city. The entire estate is estimated at $40,000,000.

CHARLES ROSS WANTED Iu London on a Charge of Steating Fifty Thousand Dollars.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30. - Detectives from this city have arrested, in St. Louis, a man who is badly wanted in London, England, on a charge of embezzlement. They have in their charge Charles Ross, who is said to be an embezzler of $50,000. It is alleged that Ross forged bonds and

It is alleged that Ross forged bonds and notes in England very successfully for a time. At last detection came, and he fled to New York three months ago.

Perry Sanderson, British consul in New York, learned that he was in Missouri, and detectives from this city located him at the residence of his brother, who is manager of a gas works in St. Louis. His brother lives on Grand avenue, a very fashionable thoroughfare, and the detectives met with many obstacles in shadowing the house. many obstacles in shadowing the house, as the street is closely guarded by private watchmen.

United States Marshals Hurley and Staford, of New York, accompanied the detectives, and this afternoon Ross was placed under arrest as he was leaving the house. The officers started for New York with their prisoner to-night.

WILL SURELY RETIRE.

Evidence That Superintendent Byrnes is Preparing to Move.

New York, Dec. 30.—It was apparent

at police headquarters in this city today that a change in affairs there is speedily approaching and gloom pervaded the entire building. No one in the big marble structure doubts for an instant that Superintendent Byrnes intends to retire as soon as his successor is appointed. The head of the police department was in his office as early as 8 o'clock in the morning, but he denied himself to visitors, although he remained several hours.

There was no concealment among those posted that the superintendent was engaged in making preparations to move. He was closeted during his stay with his confidential man, Sorgeant Frank M. Mangin, and was clearing out all his private papers and effects which have gathered during the years of his sojourn in the building. They were packed up and sent to his home on packed up and sent to West Fifty-eighth street.

Nobody cared to talk much about the matter, but those who did speak, spoke in terms of astonishment and regret at their chief's coming retirement.

Preaches on the Work of the Past Year-A Politician Defined.

New York, Dec. 30.—The Rev. Charles H. Parkburst preached a sermon this morning in which he made indirect and incidental reference to the work of the past year. The people had learned, he said, that a politician was a man of expediency and that he might arrange nedlency and that he might arrange things in such a manner as only a mighty uprising of the people could ando. In looking over the field of the future, he said, the people should look for an improvement in the character of the newspapers. The papers, he said, that daily serve up a mass of undigested mat-ter, without discrimination, to their readers were rapidly becoming a public nuisance. nuisance.

the Back River.

The ice in the Ohio became much heavier and more dangerous to navigation Friday night, so much so in fact that navigation was completely suspended. The Iron Queen had a tough time of it in getting up the river to Pittsburgh, finally arriving there Saurday evening, where she is laid up. The Courier took to the banks at Marietta, the Ben Hur at Parkersburg, R. E. Phillips at Matamoras, the Liberty at Clarington. The ferry boat Charleston made four or five t rips on Saturday morning, but the ice proved too much for her, so she was sent down to Bellaire, where she and a number of other craft are harbored during the cold spell. Three tow boats, the Benwood ferry boat and the Charleston are harbored below the piece of the Baltimore & Ohio bridge there.

of the Baltimore & Ohio bridge there.
Yesterday it was reported that the ice had gorged at three places botween Wheeling and Parkersburg, effectually shutting the river to navigation. The Hudson is laid up at Cincinnati, but the Keystone State was last heard from making her way with difficulty up the river. She was at Middleport on Saturday and is laid up at some point below Parkersburg now.

Parkersburg now.

The back river is frozen solidly, and the surface of the ice is smooth as glass. On Saturday and Sunday hundreds of skaters were attracted there by the unusually fine skating, which is so seldom afforded in these parts. No mishaps occurred, although the ice is none too strong for the crowds that gather on the back river just now.

It seems certain that Albert Grotz will be able to prove an alibi in the cash brought against him by the woman in Wheeling. There are a half dozen or more men here who were with him Christmas night till after 1 o'clock next morning, so that he couldn't have been in Wheeling between 12 and 1 o'clock. It is generally believed here that the charge is made against him by the woman because he discarded her and that there is no other foundation for it. Grotz has a family here.
